

Moon of Ancient Southeast Asia

จันทราอุษาคเนย์ · Chan-thra Usa-kha-ne

Historical romance | Time travel | Epic adventure | Period drama | Chenla kingdom

All adaptation rights available worldwide

A young woman from the future is lost in the past. Her love for a great prince may change the destiny of Southeast Asia forever. Tamisa, an archaeology student from the present day, slips through time into Southeast Asia more than a thousand years ago, an age when ancient kingdoms fought to expand their power and build new lands.

Synopsis

She meets Prince Chitrasena, the formidable war leader of Shresthapura, a man destined to shape the history of the Chenla kingdom.

A stranger from another age, Tamisa becomes his companion on a quest to find a route to the sea, through war, power struggles and constant danger. The two make a pact that may take her home, yet the closer the journey comes to its end, the deeper their bond grows, until it becomes love.

While her father in the present day tries everything to find his daughter, Tamisa must choose between returning to her family and her own time, or staying beside the man she loves as he becomes a figure of history.

When duty to the land and love both demand sacrifice, the woman lost in time must choose: the future she came from, or the past her heart cannot leave behind.

An epic time-travel romance set against the Chenla civilization: love, war, a great journey, and the founding of a Southeast Asian kingdom.

Comparable titles: Outlander, Scarlet Heart

A novel by Wannawat (วรรณวรรธน์)

Thai historical fiction author. 20+ published novels; five adapted for prime-time Thai television (Channel 3, ONE31); Nueng Dao Fa Diao released on Netflix.

Rights & adaptation enquiries

rights@wannawat.com

wannawat.com